Pioneering Tech-Driven Supply Chain Intelligence

WoRisGo has been awarded Gold for Start-up of the Year in Supply Chain (< 5 Years, Tech/Innovation Focus) at The Economic Times Supply Chain Awards.

This recognition underscores our commitment to strengthening global supply chain resilience through cutting-edge risk intelligence and actionable foresight.

Our sincere gratitude goes to:

- The Economic Times & the jury: For recognizing our innovation in the logistics and risk management landscape.
- Our clients & partners: For your ongoing trust, collaboration, and shared vision.
- The WoRisGo team: Whose relentless dedication and expertise turn complex data into operational certainty every day.

As global supply chains navigate evolving disruptions, we remain steadfast in empowering organizations with the tools and intelligence needed to stay ahead.
